We can get the truth from the Charleston papers, and it is plain that this victory was only not a fatal defeat. The Confeder ates had a narrow escape that day.

A Holy Being once descended from heaven, to make known the will of God to man. His coming was announced by hosts of angels, who sang, "Glory to God in the Highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." In all the words and acis of this Great Being appeared the spirit of peace and good will. When reviled, he reviled not again. "Blessed are the peacemakers," said he, "for they shall be called the children of God." When he was betrayed into the hands of his enemies, one of his followers drew his sword and cut off the ear of one of the band that had come to sieze him. "Put up thy sword," said he. and immediately healed the wound. While affering the agonies of a cruel death on the ross, he prayed earnestly that his enemies night be forgiven. His kingdom was not of this world, and before the objects of his mission every earthly interest shrunk into Nearly nincteen hundred years have assed away since his appearance, and his divine mission is acknowledged in all the most enlightened portions of the world When we approach a great city, we see, owering above everything else the spires hat crown the temples dedicated to Him, We find the buildings adorned with all the eauty that the skill of the architect can estow. If we enter one of them at the roper time, we shall hear the music of the rgan rising like "a steam of rich, distilled perfume," accompanying words of thanksiving for Heaven's message of peace and good will. In the most conspicuous place s one who claims to be an embassador of he Prince of Peace; and when he rises you expect to hear from his lips the words of neekness, peace, and charity. But listen! After he has laid aside a few preliminaries he rushes into the most violent denuncia tions. I'ride and hate quiver on his lip and storm in his eye. He cries, "To arms o arms." with a tone of fury that makes ou ask if you are not in a temple dedicated o Mars or Woden. You retire from this house, and enter another in time to hear the reacher talk in flippant and jesting tones you see a rebel, pray for his soul, if you aave time; but fail not to kill him."

This place seeming to you like the temple of Moloch, you withdraw and make your way to another. Here at last you feel that you have found a genuine embassador of the Prince of Peace. Heuses the very words of his Master as he sets forth the worth of the soul human, and urges man to obey the divine commands. Here you are sure that you have found one who is imbued between Jacksonville, Florida, and Charleswith the spivit of his Master; one whose peaceful presence tends to calm the stormy passions; one who yields a ready obedience o the laws of God and of his country; one whose counsels will serve to strengthen you, and whose example it will be safe to follow. You walk behind the holy man, and coast. at the next corner overhear him preaching rebellion and treason, and expressing the wish that he could dye his hands in the at high tide, and furnishing casy access to blood of the supporters of his government. the whole interior country, is open, inviting On the steamboat you hear him, not speak-On the steamboat you near him, not speaking the words of peace in the meek spirit of vessels and cargoes. If one of the apostles could revisit the earth, he would wonder what sect of pagans had stolen the Christian name. In some places he would suppose himself to be locking at the lupercalia. "These men." he would say, "are probably the priests of Mars, but how is it that they call them lion with Cedar Keys, on the Gulf, has no selves Christians? Have they killed all the Christians, and stolen their name? # TELEGRAPHIC.

Washington, August 10 .- There is no truth in the report that the navigation of the Potomao is interfered with. Boats are arriving at Baltimore. A special dispatch to the Post says the Government has issued stringent orders to prevent the transmission of telegraphic accounts of army movements, whether past, resent, or future.

Ex-Minister Faulkner has not yet cxpressed any secession sentiments, but he is exceedingly non-committal. The Secessionists here say that in a few weeks he will enter the rebel army as a Brigadier-General.

The officers of the steamer Freeborn report that the slaves are constantly employed by the rebels in the construction of entrenchments on the Polomac. The rebels in the way of the enemy.

The Tribune correspondence says: The names of the petitioners presented to Breckinridge, purporting to come from Niagara county, New York, asking that the present difficulties be adjusted, are sup-posed to be nearly all forgeries. They have been sent for by prominent gentlemen living in that county who assert that they are forgeries, and are now engaged in ferreting out the perpetrators. New Obleans, August 10.—The papers of Richmond, Va., of yesterday morning semi-officially announces that Admiral Dundas intends to take his fleet into

There are about six thousand rebels at Leesburg.

The First Pennsylvania Reserve arrived FORTRESS MONROE, August 9 - Hampton to-day. has been burnt. Scouls and fugilives brought word of the approach of a large Confederate force from Yorktowu. These rumors were confirmed by 5 o'clock P. M., by a deserter from the rebels, a native of Maine, but resident of Georgia. He has been stationed at Yorktown since June 1st. n Friday last, Magruder left Yorklown with a force of 7,000 men, including 2,500 cavalry and 8 pieces of artillery. Mot.day night they encamped at Great Bethel, which was completely deserted. Tuesday night they advanced toward Hampton, and at noon yesterday, took up position on Baltic river some three miles from the town. lie thinks the object of the expedition is to draw out forces, attack Camp Hamilton or Newport News, if practicable, and at least to destroy Hampton, so as to prevent their using it for winter quarters. General Buller at once repaired to this end of llampton bridge, where he remained till eleven o'clock.

Col. Weber erected a barricade near the Hampton end of the bridge and placed a strong guard at various points this side of the creek. A few minutes past midnight Gen. Magruder, with about 500 rebels, entered the town and immediately fired it. The greater part of the 500 houses were built with wood, and no rain having fallen lately a strong south wind soon produced a terrible conflagration. There were perhaps wenly white people and double that number of negroes remaining in the town from inability to move, some of whose houses were fired without waking the inmates. Several of the whites and also the negroes, wish to one are between services.

All orders left at the clothing store of Benj. Durrett, and orders left at the clothing store of Benj. Durrett, corner of Fourth and Water streets, will meet with prompt attention.

Gen. Magruder has encamped near New Market Bridge. He will hardly venture to attack Newport News.

Mayhew, the descrier, says there have been about seven thousand rebel troops stationed at Yorktown, and some ten days ago a battalion came down to the outskirts of Hampton and carried away 180 negroes. Provisions were abundant at Yorktown, and most volunteers are receiving new uniforms for the winter campaign.

The destruction of the town was a wanton act of cruelly, both for the residents and Unionists; and, moreover, entirely useless, as Gen. Butler intends to winter his army many miles beyond Hampton. An attempt will be made to foist these acts on the General, but after 10 o'clock Wednesday night, there was not a Federal soldier in

FROM SPRINGFIELD, Mo -We have some later advices from the Southwest. The The information brought to Rolla by Mr. Burden, slage proprietor, is interesling, showing that Gen. Lyon, occupying Springfield, was on the eve of a serious engagement with the rebel forces. A dispatch from Gen. The CERATE has proved itself to be the best Ofstment ever invented, and where once used it has never been known to fall of effecting a permanent cure of the Sores, Tetter and Ringworm, Scaid Read, Chiliblains and Frost Bites, Barbers' lich, Chapped an I tracked Hands or Lips, Blotches or Pimples on the Face. And SORE NIPPLES AND SORE EYES the Cerate is the only thing required to core. It should be kept in the house of every fatally. Read the following letter from the most reliable authority; and any person desiring further evidence of the cure, will get it by addressing a few lines to Mr.

EAU CLAIRE, EAU CLAIRE Co., Wis., Oct. 1, 1860.

Messre, J. N. Harris & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio: dentience—Vour Agent, Mr. A. F. Barnes, will assing through our pace, cashally heard of a most e-tual cure of an obsolutate case of Salt Rheum in ember of my family, having politely requested to cts of the case, I most cheerfully comply with his r acts of the case, I most cheerfully comply with his regress.
The subject of this remarkable cure is my son, who as attacked with Salt Kheum when about a year and half sid. I applied from time to time for all to the nost cilicent Providens. In the Eastern states, one of thom had traveled in Europe; but whilst he would at lines receive some temporary reliefs still the disease readined, and would break out occasionally, with the nost virinent type, intil he arrived at the areo of four-cen years, when my eve providentially rested upon the divertisement of Dr. Weaver's Canker and salt Rheum yrup and Cerate. I at once procured a bottle, which is the subject of the divertisement of the divertisement of the most of the procured two more one had been with the Cerate, and the result is, that my son ow is and has been effectually cured of that wretched leeps for the last three and a half years.

Respectfully yours.

JUST THE THING .- Our attention was alled this morning to a friend of ours, who, a few months ago, was sickly, feeble and debilitated-now he is healthy, strong, and robust. This great change was produced y taking MoLean's Celebrated Strength-RENING CORDIAL. It is a real Elixir of Life.

Female Diseases, &c., We advise every reader who may be dekly and debilitated, and all who are well and wish to keep so, to try it. - Evening au2 d&wlm The casis in the desert hath no such charms to the thirsty traveler as WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING ELIXIR has to the debilitated and heart-sore sufferer from illtreated disease or physical prostration, who has been fortunate enough to try its ceneficial agency, and welcomed back reanimated health and mental vigor. The man with broken health, the mother with care-worn countenance and depressed MEDICAL INFIRMARY epirits, the maiden with lack-lustre eye and CONDUCTED ON THE PLAN OF THE HOSPITAL taltering step, can all bear witness to the revitalizing effect of the Rejuvenating Elixir. Mothers take warning and try it, either for yourselves or for your offspring; returning health and ruddy cheeks will repay its Sold by all respectable druggists throughout the United States and Canada. J WRIGHT & CO., sole proprietors, New Orleans, Louisians. See advertisement.

HOPEINSVILLE, KY., Augus 27th 1858. Dr. Shallenberger-Dear Sir: I have to state that your Fever and Ague Antidote s daily growing into favor, and needs no putting to recommend it, as its own merits are sufficient, wherever a trial has been made.
